From all of which it satisfactorily appeared to the Court that the original complaint of Robert Austin Scott should be, and the same is, dismissed, and the Court being satisfied with the proof of counter-plaintiff and her witnesses as to her charge of cruel and inhuman treatment, the Court finds that the cross-defendant is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward counter-plaintiff as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper and as renders it unsafe and improper for her to remain under his dominion and control, she is therefore granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

The Court sanctions the agreement of the parties as to a division of their property as announced to the Court after a recess and that agreement is made the judgment of the Court as here set out, namely, all of the right, title and interest of the original plaintiff and cross-defendant in and to the real estate situated at 533 Rural Hill Road, being Lot No. 51 on the Plan of Edge-O-Lake Subdivision, Section IV, of record in Book 3600, pages 87 and 88, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, said Lot No. 51 fronts 80 feet on the westerly margin of Rural Hill Road, running back between lines measuring 134.56 feet on the southerly line and 138.96 feet on the northerly line to a line in the rear measuring 87.70 feet thereon, is divested out of him and vested
