ORDER

This cause came on to be heard November 25, 1977, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of the plaintiff, motion of the defendant to set aside the judgment by default, which motion was overruled, witnesses introduced in open Court and the entire record in this cause, from all of which the Court was of the opinion that the allegations contained in the original bill were fully sustained, that is, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward plaintiff as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff be and he is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff is awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties with the right given to the defendant to have reasonable periods of visitation but she is enjoined from taking either of these children around any other male other than members of her own family.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the defendant will pay into the hands of the Clerk of the Circuit Court the sum of $20.00 per week as child support, plus the five percent Clerk's commission.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that whatever right, title and interest the defendant has or might have in the hereinafter described real estate be divested out of her and vested in the plaintiff as his sole property. Said property is described as follows:
