IN THE PROBATE COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

BESSIE COX HAYES

vs. NO. 33497

GEORGE ELLIS HAYES

DECREE

This cause came on to be heard this 22 day of July, 1963, before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge, upon the amended bill of complainant, the answer of defendant, and the oral testimony of witnesses examined in open court. And it satisfactorily appeared to the court from the proof that the facts charged in the amended bill are true: that the defendant is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment towards the complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper for her to be under the dominion and control of the defendant and that the complainant gave the defendant no cause or just excuse for said misconduct, and has not condoned the same.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the complainant and the defendant be absolutely and forever dissolved and that complainant be vested with all the rights of an unmarried woman

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the interest and title of the defendant in the below described real estate be divested out of the defendant and vested in complainant as alimony.

Said real estate is described as follows:

> Being Lot #47 on the Gov. McMillen Plan of the Subdivision of the Old State Prison Lands in Nashville, Tennessee as of record in Book 161, page 119, Registers Office for said County.

Complainant is also given as alimony all the household and kitchen furniture in the family residence of the parties at 311 McMillin Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, and the title to all such personal property is divested out of defendant and vested into complainant.

The exclusive custody of Jane Elizabeth Hayes and Delores Hayes, minor children of the parties, is committed to the complainant, with defendant having the right of reasonable visitation; the matter of custody of the minor child of the parties George Hayes, Jr. is reserved, he being beyond the jurisdiction of the court. The defendant is ordered to pay to the Clerk of the circuit court of the Davidson County, Tennessee, the sum of $25.00 plus poundage per week for the support and maintenance of said minor children committed to custody of complainant. Said payments to begin Thursday, July 25, 1963.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that complainant have judgment against defendant in the sum of $770.00, for the arrearages on the order of support entered herein on April 14, 1959, which judgment shall be paid at the rate of $5.00 per week plus poundage to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that defendant pay David Vincent, Solicitor for complainant, the sum of $75.00, his fee in this cause for services to date. Defendant will also pay the costs of this cause. Execution will issue to enforce the payment of said sums and costs.
