This cause came on to be heard on this the 23rd day of July, 1974, before The Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, upon the original complaint, answer and cross-complaint, and the answer thereto, testimony of plaintiff and her corroborating witnesses, statement of counsel, the property settlement agreement of the parties, and the entire record in this cause; from all of which it appears to the Court that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward the plaintiff as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper, that the plaintiff should be granted an absolute divorce and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person, that the property settlement agreement heretofore entered into between the parties should be approved and made a part of this decree.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff be, and is hereby, awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED by the Court that the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties be, and the same is hereby, approved, which agreement was executed on July 12, 1974, and reads in part as follows:

"..........

1. The wife is to have custody of Jennifer Lee Whittaker and the husband is to have custody of Jeffery Whittaker.

2. The husband is to pay child support in the amount of $20.00 per week, with the agreement that he is to be allowed to claim all children as dependants on his imcome tax return.

3. The wife is to receive the 1973 Pinto automobile bearing the manufacturer's identification number_____, with the understanding that the husband will pay the note payable to the Ford Glass Credit Union for the purchase of this automobile.

4. The wife is to receive the sewing machine, children's bedroom suite, kitchen table, two dressers and the stereo.

5. The husband is to receive the balance of the furniture which is located at the parties' home.

6. It is agreed by the parties that the collection of old coins will be stored in the deposit box at the bank for the benefit of the minor children.

7. It is further understood that the wife agreed to endorse the 1973 income tax refund check over to the husband since he has previously paid her $255.00 which represented her refund if she had filed separately and since it was agreed to file jointly in order to assist the husband.

8. The wife agrees to sign all papers necessary to convey the house and lot to the husband. Further, the husband is to receive all right, title and interest in and to the 1970 Ford pickup truck.

9. The wife agrees to pay the medical bill now existing with Dr. Elmer Bottsford.

10. Each of the parties agree to pay their respective attorneys for the services rendered in this cause.

....."

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the defendant should pay the costs of this cause.

For all of which execution may issue, if necessary.
