IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

BOOK 5403 PAGE 242

THELMA BUTLER WILLIAMS) Plaintiff) vs.) No. 91584
CECIL BYRON WILLIAMS)

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge holding Division IV of the Tenth Judical Circuit Court of Metropolitan Nashville Davidson County, Tennessee on the 12th day of December, 1978 upon the original bill of the Plaintiff Thelma Butler Williams, the answer and cross-complaint of Cecil Byron Williams and the answer to the cross-complaint. This cause came on to be further heard upon the petition of the plaintiff to punish the defendant for alleged contempt of the Orders of the Court. The Court heard the testimony of the principals, the testimony of the corroborative witnesses, the argument of the solicitors and the entire record from all of which the Court feels that an absolute divorce be granted the Plaintiff on the statutorily alleged grounds of abandonment and failure to provide as amended at the hearing.

The Court further finds that the home place of the parties, 1119 Greenland Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, now being lived in by the Plaintiff shall be and become her sole property together with the household furnishings therein.

The Court finds that Plaintiff is awarded alimony in solido in the amount of seven thousand five hundred ($7,500.00) dollars and hereby declares a lien upon all of the Defendants property, both real, personal and mixed until said amount is paid in full. The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to one-half of the value of the livestock as testified to by the parties in existence as of the date of the hearing of this cause. The Court further finds that Plaintiff is entitled to the amount of money that Defendant has heretofore paid into the office of the Circuit Court Clerk and this amoutn shall be and become her sole property.

The Court further finds that the defendant shall be the sole owner of the following personal property now located at 1119 Greenland Avenue which is: an antique table, a mirror, one half of the pictures taken either of the family group or any portion thereof, tools and tool box, used by the defendant, personal clothing, a hat, old riding lawn mower, lamp obtained from the Williams' family, and one quilt.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is entitled as his sole and separate property the house and twenty-two acres more or less in the Fifth Civil District of Smith County, Tennessee together with all of the furniture, equipment, household supplies, and all personal property located therein and thereon, including an International 40 Tractor, a 1967 Chevrolet Fleetside pick-up truck, already titled in Defendant's name and one half of the cattle located thereon and any other farm tools or equipment.

The Court further finds that each party now owns a car in his or her name and they shall keep same without claim thereon by the other spouse.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is guilty of contempt of Court but there will be no punishment on this occasion.

The Court further finds that the solicitor for the Plaintiff shall be paid a fee of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars by the Defendant and there shall be a lien upon all of the property of the Defendant until satisfied in toto.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the Plaintiff is hereby granted a divorce from the Defendant on the statutorily alleged grounds of abandonment and failure to provide and that she is hereby restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the home place of the parties, 1119 Greenland Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, become the sole property of the plaintiff together with the household furnishings therein except as set out above.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff alimony in solido in the amount of seven thousand five hundred ($7,500.00) dollars and that a lien shall be declared upon all of the defendants property, real, personal and mixed until said amount is paid in full. That one-half of the value of the livestock, in existence as of the date of the hearing, be vested in the Plaintiff. The amount of money on deposit with the Circuit Court Clerk, placed by the Defendant, shall become the sole property of the Plaintiff.

It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that certain personal property located at 1119 Greenland Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, to wit: an antique table, a mirror, one half of the pictures taken either of the family group or any portion thereof, tools and tool box, used by the defendant, personal clothing, a hat, old riding lawn mower, lamp obtained from the Williams' family, and one quilt.

It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the house and twenty-two (22) acres more or less in the Fifth Civil District of Smith County, Tennessee, together with all of the furniture, equipment, household supplies and all personal property located therein and thereon, including an International 40 tractor, a 1967 Chevrolet Fleetside pick-up truck and one half of the cattle located thereon including any other farm tools or equipment shall be wholly vested in the Defendant as his sole property.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that each party owns his or her automobile and shall keep same without claim thereon by the other spouse.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Defendant is guilty of contempt of Court but there will be no punishment on this occasion.

It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the solicitor for the plaintiff be paid a fee of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars by the defendant and there shall be a lien upon all of the property of the Defendant until satisfied in toto.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Plaintiff shall have the sole and separate ownership of an iron bed now located at the farm in Smith County, Tennessee.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that each of the parties hereto shall execute a quitclaim deed to the other party for the properties mentioned in this Decree.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the costs of this cause shall be paid by the Defendant for which let execution issue, if necessary. This Decree shall be entered nunc pro tunc as of the 12th day of December, 1978.
