DECREE

This cause came on for hearing on this February 23, 1967 before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge of the Probate Court of Davidson County, Tennessee upon the original bill, pro confesso heretofore entered, testimony of witnesses heard in open Court statement of counsel and upon the entire record. From all of which the Court finds that the allegations in the bill are fully sustained, that is that the defendant, William Dorris Staley has deserted the complainant for more than one year next to and preceding the filing of this bill;

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and the same are hereby dissolved and the complainant, Geneva Coleman Staley is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, William Dorris Staley and she is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It further appearing to the Court that the minor child born to this union, William Staley, age eighteen is now in college and is being supported by the defendant and that the parties through and by counsel have agreed that the homeplace of the parties be divested from them and vested in the minor child;

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the custody of the minor child be and is hereby awarded to complainant however the defendant as support and maintenance for the minor child will continue to retain him in college paying for his necessary college expenses and that all the right, title and interest that the parties, Geneva Coleman Staley and William Dorris Staley have in and to the homeplace located at 113 Barry Drive, Madison, Tennessee be divested out of the parties and reinvested in the minor child of the parties William Maurice Staley and all necessary documents including a deed to place this title into the said minor will be signed by the parties;

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that as alimony to the complainant, Geneva Coleman Staley all the right, title and interest that the defendant has in and to the household furnishings and furniture located at 113 Barry Drive, Madison, Tennessee be divested from the defendant and reinvested in the complainant.

It is further ORDERED ADJUDGED and DECREED that the defendant will pay to Earl McNabb, Solicitor for complainant, a fee in the amount of $150.00 and the defendant will pay the costs of this cause for all of which let execution issue if necessary.
