FINAL DECREE

This cause came to be heard on September 14, 1977 before the Honorable J. William Rutherford, Judge of the First Circuit Court, Nashville, Tennessee. It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the testimony of witness and the evidence produced that the complaint was filed on 6 May 1977, the defendant was served by personal service on 6 June 1977, the defendant failed to answer and default was taken and the matter set for trial. The Court is further of the opinion that the plaintiff has proved that the defendant is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment toward the plaintiff that this marriage should be dissolved on these grounds.

The Court is further of the opinion that all title, rights, and interest that the defendant may have in any and all real and personal property previously owned by the parties be divested out of the defendant, James Price, and solely into the plaintiff Mary Lou Emmons Price, said property being located at 3831 Cravath Drive, Nashville, Tennessee and that the plaintiff be restored to all the rights of a single person.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony that previously existed between the parties are hereby dissolved on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. That all title, rights and interest that the defendant, James Price, has or may have in any real or personal
