LEATRICE BREWINGTON) IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT OF
DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE
VS (
BOOK 5443 PAGE 32
JAMES LEWIS BREWINGTON) No. 44247

This cause came on to be heard on January 29, 1968 before Judge Benson Trimble upon the original bill of the complainant, the answer of the defendant, the attachment of the hereinafter described real property and household furniture and other personal property situated therein, the entire record in this cause, the announcement of the Solicitor of Record for the complainant that there had been an agreement that the support order for the children of the parties effected through the Attorney General' Office would not be disturbed, and the ~~oral~~ testimony of the complainant and her witnesses ~~examined in open Court~~; from all of which it satisfactorily appeared to the Court that the allegations of complainant's bill have been fully met by the proof; namely, that the defendant has abandoned her or turned her out of doors and has refused or neglected to provide for her;

The Court further finds that the attachment of the real estate in Davidson County, Tennessee being Lots Nos. 117 and 118 on the Map of Joywood Heights, Section 1, as of record in Book 1130, page 91, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee together with the furniture and personal property situated therein should be and the same is sustained as to the equity of the defendant, James Lewis Brewington, therein;

The Court further finds that the complainant is a proper party to be awarded the care, custody and control of the children of the parties;

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that complainant be and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant. The care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties is vested in the complainant. The defendant is privileged to see said children at their home at reasonable times. The attachment of the real property above described and the household furniture and goods situated therein is sustained and to this end all of the right, title and interest of the defendant therein is divested out of him and vested in the complainant.

The support for the children will continue under the Order of the Circuit Court of Marion County, Indiana but this Court does not intend by this order to preclude either party from filing a petition relative to the welfare of the children of the parties. The defendant will pay the costs of this cause.
