NANCY DARLENE MANGRUM HICKAM

VS: #18444--RULE 1999

ROY EUGENE HICKAM, JR.

DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the 23rd day of April, 1964, before the Honorable W. Earl Swann, Judge of the General Sessions Court of Robertson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill filed by the Complainant and the answer filed thereto be the defendant.

From the pleadings in this cause, oral testimony heard in open Court, statement of counsel, and from the entire record in this cause the Court was of the opinion that the allegations contained in the original bill were fully sustained, that is, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards the complainant as renders it unsafe and improper for her to further cohabit with the defendant and remain under his dominion and control.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, DDJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant, Nancy Darlene Mangrum Hickam, and the defednant, Roy Eugene HIckam, Jr., be, and the same hereby are, forever and perpetually dissolved, and the complainant is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and is restored to all of the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the custody of the minor children of the parties, to-wit: Thersa Ann Hickam, Tammy Neil Hickam and Terry Virginia Hickam, be, and the same is hereby, committed to the complainant with the right and privilege in the defendnat to see and visit said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the defendant shall pay to the Complainant as child support the sum of Twenty-Five ($25.00) Dollars per week until such time as the minor children shall obtain the age of twenty-one years or become self-supporting.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that all of the household furniture belonging to the parties along with the 1959 Pontiac automobile be, and the same are hereby, vested out of the defendant and vested solely in your complainant. Further, that all right, title and interest that the complainant might have in the homeplace of the parties located at 1924 Carloss Drive be, and the same is hereby, vested out of your complainant and vested in your defendant.

The defendant will pay the costs of this cause, for which execution may issue if necessary.
