BELVA JEAN McGEE)
) IN THE CIRCUIT COURT VS. 55084) OF
) DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE
ORVAL OTIS McGEE)

FINAL DECREE BOOK 5502 PAGE 751

This matter came on to be heard this the 17th day of February, 1970 before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill heretofore filed and the pro confesso entered against the defendant, he having failed to answer as required by law, and upon oral motion of the complainant that her relief be an absolute divorce as she has stated in her Bill, grounds for such, the testimony of witnesses in open Court, and argument of counsel, from all of which, the Court finds that the complainant has made out her Bill as to the grounds of failure to provide and cruel and inhuman treatment. The Court further finds that the defendant is in the arrearage in child support in the amount of $2,490.00 for which said plaintiff is entitled to a judgment. The Court further finds that the property owned by the parties should be awarded to the complainant as part of her alimony and further, that the interest in the life insurance policy with National Life Insurance Company, being policy no. 3859617, should be divested from the defendant and all proveeds and interest be vested in the complainant. The Court further finds that all of the household belongings, including a 1965 Pontiac should be divested from the defendant and vested in the complainant and further, finds that the complainant is the proper person to have the care, custody and control of all the minor children and that the defendant should continue the support payments of $275.00 per month for the support of the minor children. The Court further finds that the parties are owners of a tract of land in Davidson County, Tennessee described as follows:

> Being Lot No. 152 on the Plan of Section III, Sutherland Heights, as of record in Book 2663, page 117, Register's Office for said County.
>
