BETTYE GURGANUS SPICER	)	IN THE SIXTH CIRCUIT COURT OF
	)
VS.	)	DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE
	)
CAMEL CLINTON SPICER	)	NO. 81387

DECREE

This action came on to be heard on March 1, 1976, before the Honorable James M. Swiggart, Judge of the Sixth Circuit Court, upon plaintiff's complaint for absolute divorce, personal service of process being had on defendant, default judgment heretofore taken and entered against the defendant, the testimony and affidavits of witnesses and the appearance by the defendant at the hearing in regard to the property rights of the parties, and the entire record; from all of which it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint have been fully sustained by the proof and that the defendant, Camel Clinton Spicer, has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment towards the plaintiff, Bettye Guranus Spicer.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the plaintiff, Bettye Gurganus Spicer, and the defendant, Camel Clinton Spicer, be and the same are absolutely and forever dissolved, and that the plaintiff be and hereby is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED that the plaintiff be and hereby is awarded the defendant's interest in and to the 1973 Ford Maverick automobile presently utilized by her, and that the remaining installment payments for the purchase thereof be made by the plaintiff. It is further ORDERED that the rights of the defendant in and to the real property located at 305 Spence Circle, Nashville, Tennessee, be and the same are hereby divested from him and vested in the plaintiff but, that the remaining unpaid purchase price of the said property be hereafter the responsibility of the plaintiff. It is also further ORDERED that the plaintiff's interest in and to the real property located at 2110 Omohundro Drive in Nashville be and the same are hereby divested from her and vested in the defendant and that the remaining upaid purchase price of the said property be hereafter the responsibility of the defendant.

It is also ORDERED that the plaintiff be and the same is hereby awarded all of her husband's right, title and interest in and to the houseboat heretofore owned by the parties jointly, all of the defendant's rights in and to the Camel Country Lounge, the electric range, refrigerator, washer and dryer, cherry table and four (4) chairs, one (1) bedroom suite, all minor items of furniture and household goods owned by her prior to the marriage of the parties and the sum of Six Hundred ($600.00) Dollars.

In addition, it is ORDERED that the costs of this action and attorney's fees in the amount of Three Hundred ($300.00) be taxed to the defendant and that both parties execute and deliver to the other such deeds and other instruments as are needed and necessary to further evidence the transfer of property ordered herein.

Enter this 2nd day of July, 1976.
