FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard this 10th day of September, 1979 before the Honorable James M. Swiggart, Judge of the Sixth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee as an uncontested divorce upon the cross-complaint of Robert W. Wray, Jr., the original complaint of Brenda Lee Wray and her answer to the cross-bill having been withdrawn and after testimony of the cross-complainant, Robert W. Wray, Jr., the Court was of the opinion that the allegations have been sustained, that is that the parties have irreconcilable differences, and the Court was further of the opinion that the agreement entered into by and between the parties should be approved and made a part of this final decree and further that the matter of child support is reserved by either or both parents.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that cross-complainant, Robert W. Wray, Jr., is granted an absolute divorce.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the agreement entered into by and between the parties be approved and made a part of this final decree, which agreement reads in words and figures as follows:

1. That husband shall have the custody of the parties minor children.

2. That wife shall have reasonable and unlimited visitation privileges with her children.

3. That husband shall have all right, title and interest to the house or homeplace belonging to the parties and that he will pay the mortgage on said real property and hold wife harmless from any further mortgages or indebtedness. The parties have

6. Both husband and wife will be responsible for their own separate bills, accounts and loans.

7. Wife shall receive all right, title and interest to the 1971 Chevrolet automobile.

8. Husband shall keep and receive all right, title and interest to a 1965 Mustang automobile and a 1976 Pontiac automobile. Each will hold the other harmless on any debts, mortgages or loans on the automobile that they receive.

9. Husband shall keep the children of the parties as beneficiaries on life insurance which he has on his life and he will keep the children on his hospitalization insurance policy that he now has in full force and effect.

10. This agreement contains the entire understanding between the parties and each will sign any document, memorandum, deed or other writing in order to carry out the terms of this agreement.
