GLADYS (BROWN) CALKINS	)	IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT
VS. NO. 5 3 1 2 3	)	OF
JAMES MURRY CALKINS	)	DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE
	)

F I N A L D E C R E E

This cause came on to be heard October 1, 1968, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of complainant, substitute service of process by publication, the pro confesso duly taken, witnesses introduced in open Court and the entire record in this cause, from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the allegations of the original bill are fully sustained, that is, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward complainant so as to render cohabitation unsafe and improper as for complainant to be under defendant's dominion and control.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that complainant be and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that whatever right, title or interest that the defendant has or may have in the following described real estate be and the same is hereby divested out of him and vested in complainant as her sole property, with the express provision that the complainant Gladys (Brown) Calkins pay any and all indebtednesses thereon, said property is described as follows, to-wit:

Certain real estate in Davidson County, Tennessee, as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being the westerly one-half of Lot No. 104 on the Map of Inglewood Place, as of record in Book 332 page 101, Register's Office for said County.

Said part of Lot No. 104 fronts 50 feet on the southerly side of Greenfield Avenue and extends back between parallel lines 189.75 feet to a dead line.

Being the same property conveyed to James M. Calkins and wife, Gladys Brown Calkins, by deed from W. F. Carr and wife, Dorothy G. Carr, of record in Book 2694, page 129, Said Register's Office.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that whatever right, title or interest that the defendant has or may have in household goods and furnishings owned by the parties be and the same is hereby divested out of him and vested in complainant as her sole property.

The complainant will pay the costs of this cause, for which execution may issue if necessary.
