This cause came on to be heard on the 14th day of February, 1969 before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Part IV of the Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee upon the original bill of divorce, pro confesso entered, witnesses examined in open court, interrogatories filed, and upon the entire record of this cause.

From all of which it appears that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment as alleged in the complainant's bill of divorce and that she is entitled to an absolute divorce in this cause.

It further appears to the court that the custody of the minor child of the parties should be granted to the complainant, Dorothy Holman, and that the defendant, Howard Leon Holman, should have reasonable visitation privileges.

It further appears to the court that any and all equity which the defendant may have in the household furnishings and goods located at 4920 Yorktown Road, Nashville, Tennessee should be divested as to him and vested in the complainant.

The court is further of the opinion that any and all equity which the defendant, Howard Leon Holman, may have in the house located at 4920 Yorktown Road more specifically described as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot no. 256 on the Plan of Fairlane Park, Section III, as of record in Book 2331, page 145, Register's Office for said County.
> Said Lot No. 256 fronts 71.0 feet on the easterly side of Yorktown Road and runs back 229.0 feet on the northerly side and 275.3 feet on the southerly side to a dead line, measuring 87.8 feet thereon.
> Being the same property conveyed to Thomas Harold Brown and wife, Mary Jane M. Brown, by warranty deed from Melpar Homes, Inc., as of record in Book 2649, page 447, said Register's Office.

be divested as to the defendant and vested to your complainant subject, of course, to any outstanding liens thereon.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED good cause having been shown that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the complainant and the defendant are absolutely and forever dissolved, and the complainant, Dorothy McAlister Holman, be and is hereby divorced from the defendant, Howard Leon Holman, and the complainant is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the custody of the minor child of the parties should be granted to the complainant, Dorothy Holman, and that the defendant, Howard Leon Holman, should have reasonable visitation privileges.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that any and all equity which the defendant may have in the household furnishings and goods located at 4920 Yorktown Road, Nashville, Tennessee should be divested as to him and vested in the complainant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that any and all equity which the defendant, Howard Leon Holman, may have in the house and lot located at 4920 Yorktown Road, more specifically described as follows: BOOK 5619 PAGE 404
