FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the 11th day of August, 1980, before the Honorable Stephen North, Judge, upon the original complaint for absolute divorce, the defendant having withdrawn his answer and cross complaint, testimony of the plaintiff, introduction of the property settlement agreement, statement of counsel, and the entire record in this cause, from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the parties have irreconcilable differences and that the plaintiff should be and hereby is granted an absolute divorce.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff shall be and hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties shall be and hereby is incorporated herein as follows:

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

1. The wife is to have custody of the minor child with reasonable visitation rights to the husband; or in the alternative, every other weekend and alternate holidays and two weeks in the summer.

2. The husband is to retain the personal property in his possession and the wife is to retain the property in her possession.

3. The wife's maiden name, Floyd, to be restored to her.

4. The wife is to be granted an absolute divorce.

5. The Wife is to receive the house in fee simple and the husband is to have a lien in the amount of $6,500 and interest at 10% to be paid when, (1) the wife remarries, (2) the child reaches the age of 18 years, or (3) the house is sold.

6. Each of the parties will pay his or her respective attorney's fees.

7. The Husband is to pay the costs.

8. The Husband will receive the 1977 van and the wife will receive the 1972 Nova.

9. The husband is to maintain hospitalization and dental insurance on the minor child and further will name the child as beneficiary on his current life insurance, and will furnish proof of said insurance to the wife.

10. The husband will be allowed to claim the child on his income tax return.

11. The husband is to pay the debts of the parties and will hold the wife harmless from any liability arising therefrom.

12. The husband is to pay the amount of $50.00 per week as child support, commencing on August 15, 1980.
