WILLIAM P. SHAW, JR.	)

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be tried in open court on July 22, 1980 before the Honorable Harry Lester.

It appearing to the Court from the evidence presented, the statements of counsel, and the record as a whole, that the plaintiff, Tanya Shaw, should be awarded absolute divorce from the defendant on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

It further appears to this Court that custody of the minor child should be awarded to the plaintiff, Tanya Shaw, and that the defendant should be granted visitation rights with the minor child from 3 p.m. on Saturday to 3 p.m. on Sunday and that the defendant shall have visitation rights with the minor on every other holiday for the day of such holiday.

It also appears to this Court that the defendant should pay child support to the plaintiff in the amount of $50 per week payable to the clerk of this Court plus costs for which execution may issue.

It appearing to this Court that the house located at 4720 Miner's Cove, Antioch, Tennessee, being map 149-09 parcel 214, be awarded to the defendant and any interest of the plaintiff divested from her; and that the furniture of the parties located in said dwelling be awarded to the defendant.

It appearing to this Court that the defendant is in arrears on temporary child support in the amount of $150 for which the plaintiff is given judgment and said sum is to be paid to the clerk of this Court plus costs at a rate of $10 per month until paid for which execution may issue.

It appearing to this Court that the plaintiff should be granted a lien against the residence at 4720 Miner's Cove, Antioch, Tennessee, to secure the payment of all back, present, or future child support which becomes in arrears.

It appearing to this Court that the plaintiff should recover of the defendant the sume of $500.00 alimony in solido and that she should be awarded $500 of the defendant as a reasonable fee according to the proof presented for plaintiff's counsel for all of which execution may issue.

Therefore, it is so ORDERED and DECREED as above recited and the costs of this cause are taxed against the defendant for all of which execution may issue.

Enter, this the 18th day of August, 1980.
