IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF GARFIELD COUNTY,
STATE OF OKLAHOMA.

BY NORLENE GERDES

DONALD G. BOWER, Plaintiff,

v.

DONNA G. BOWER, Defendant.

No. FR-80-516

84-1-131

JOURNAL ENTRY OF DIVORCE DECREE

This cause comes on regularly for hearing on this 7th day of October, 1980, the same being a regular judicial day of this court; the plaintiff and his attorney, Kenneth E. Lisle, Jr. of the firm, Farrant and Lisle, being present in person, the defendant having prior hereto entered her general appearance waiving her right to answer and consenting that this matter may be tried without further notice to her.

The court, having examined the pleadings filed herein and having heard the testimony of witnesses sworn and examined in open court and being fully advised in the premises, finds as follows:

1. That the plaintiff at the time of filing his petition was and has been an actual resident in good faith of the State of Oklahoma for more than six months and an actual resident in good faith of the County of Garfield for more than thirty days.

2. That the parties in this action were married at Pensacola, Florida, on the 24th day of September, 1964.

3. That of said marriage one child was born, JEFFREY TODD BOWER, born January 5, 1966.

4. That during their marriage the parties hereto have acquired certain real and personal property and an equitable division thereof should be made by the court.

5. That during their marriage the parties hereto have incurred certain indebtedness, for which assignment of liability should be made.

6. That a state of incompatibility exists between the parties, which incompatibility results from the fault of the defendant by reason of which the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff be, and he hereby is, granted a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of incompatibility, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between said parties be, and the same hereby are, dissolved; provided, although this decree shall be final and take effect from this date, that neither the plaintiff or the defendant may marry another person until six months after this date, and provided further, that within such period both parties may make a written and signed application to the Court asking that this decree be set aside and held for naught, and, upon proper proof to the Court, the decree will be set aside and vacated. For all other purposes the divorce shall be final from this date.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the memorandum of agreement entered into by the parties on September 15, 1980, be, and the same hereby is, approved by the court, and all provisions therein are incorporated and included herein with the same force and effect as if recopied herein in full.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the following property acquired by the parties during their marriage be set over to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property:

(a) 1968 Chevrolet

(b) All his personal effects and other property not mentioned but in his possession free and clear of all encumbrances or liens of the defendant, in full satisfaction of all property rights to which plaintiff is entitled, and that defendant upon demand of plaintiff make and execute and deliver to plaintiff good and sufficient bills of sale or transfers of title to the above-described property, and, upon failure to do so, this decree shall operate as such instrument.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the following property acquired by the parties during their marriage be set over to the defendant, to-wit:

(a) The residence at 849 Rose Park Drive, Davidson County, Nashville, Tennessee, subject to the mortgage thereon, described as:

Lot Twelve (12) on the Plan of Rose Estates, Section One (1) of Record Book 3600, page 37, R.O.D.C. Tennessee.

(b) Furniture and appliances with the residence

(c) 1975 Ford automobile

(d) All her personal effects and other property not mentioned but in her possession free and clear of all encumbrances or liens of the plaintiff, in full satisfaction of all property rights to which defendant is entitled, and that plaintiff upon demand of defendant make and execute and deliver to defendant good and sufficient deeds, bills of sale or transfers of title to the above-described real and personal property, and, upon failure to do so, this decree shall operate as such instrument.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the plaintiff assume and pay all indebtedness incurred in his name and on property in his possession.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the defendant assume and pay the mortgage indebtedness on the residence at 849 Rose Park Drive, and for all other indebtedness in her name and on property in her possession.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the defendant be awarded the care, custody and control of JEFFREY TODD BOWER, the minor child of the parties; and that the plaintiff have the right of visiting said child at all reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the plaintiff pay to the defendant through the clerk of this court for the above-named child during minority the amount of $80.00 per month plus poundage, equalling $80.80 per month, on the 1st of each month beginning on the first such date after this decree becomes final, as and for support and maintenance.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the plaintiff pay the cost of this action and $475.00 to plaintiff's attorney for services herein, which is assessed as costs.
