FINAL DECREE

This cause came on for hearing on this the 15th day of February , 1980 before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee at Nashville, upon the original complaint filed by the complainant, Jean A. Bowman, pro-confesso heretofore entered with the court, with the defendant having failed to answer, service of process by publication in this matter, testimony of witnesses heard in open court, and the entire record herein. From all of which the court is of the opinion and finds as follows:

That the allegations of complainants original complaint for absolute divorce have been fully sustained, that is that the defendant, James G. Bowman has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards the complainant as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper for her to remain under his dominion and control, and the court further finds that the defendant has been guilty of habitual drunkeness contracted after the marriage of the parties.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing by and between the parties are hereby dissolved and the complainant, Jean A. Bowman is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, James G. Bowman and she is hereby restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the custody of the minor son of the parties, to wit Jonathan Todd Bowman is hereby vested in the complainant, Jean A. Bowman and the matter of child support is hereby reserved pending the defendant coming into the jurisdiction of the court.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the homeplace of the parties located at 115 Hickman Street, Old Hickory, Tennessee is hereby awarded to the complainant, Jean A. Bowman, and any right, title or interest that the defendant, James G. Bowman has in and to the same is hereby divested from him and reinvested in the complainant to be hers absolute and in fee simple.

Said real property is more particularly described in words and figures as follows:

Land in the 4th Civil District of Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 16 on the unrecorded Map of Scenic View Subdivision, described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the southeasterly margin of Hickman Street at the corner of Lots 15 and 16; thence with the line between said lots, southeasterly 246.1 feet to the line of Lot No. 23; thence with the line between lots 16 and 23, southwesterly 92.5 feet to the northeasterly margin of Keeton Avenue; thence with the margin of the same, northwesterly 221.5 feet to the beginning of a curve; thence around said curve, northerly 40.1 feet to the margin of Hickman Street; thence with the margin of thesame, northeasterly 74.4 feet to the point of beginning.

Being the same property conveyed to James G. Bowman and wife Jean A. Bowman by deed from Mizell B. Anderson and wife Annie Lee H. Anderson by warranty deed of record in Book 4464 page 203 Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the household furniture and furnishings of the parties located in the homeplace at 150 Hickman Street, Old Hickory, Tennessee is hereby awarded to the complainant, Jean A. Bowman to be hers absolute and in fee simple, free and clear of the claim of the defendant herein.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each party shall retain their own respective automobiles free and clear of the claim of the other, and it is further ORDERED AND DECREED that the complainant is awarded the 1974 GTO automobile, which is titled to her and which is for the use and benefit of the son of theparties.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant is hereby ordered to pay all debts and obligations of the parties incured during the marriage and that the complainant herein shall be held harmless thereon.

The defendant herein, James G. Bowman is permanently enjoined and restrained from coming about the complainant for the purpose of physically abusing, harrassing, or molesting her in any manner whatsoever either by telephone or otherwise and at her residence or wherever she might be.

The defendant shall pay the costs of this cause for all of which let execution issue if necessary.
