Trustors agree to keep all buildings now on, or to be hereafter erected on said property, insured under policies in form satisfactory to the holder of the secured indebtedness and by companies satisfactory to said holder for the sum of TWO HUNDRED SEVENTY FIVE THOUSAND and No/100 DOLLARS ($275,000.00), or at least the maximum insurable value, until the indebtedness herein secured is fully paid, and to have the loss, if any, made payable on the policy, or policies, the lawful owner or holder of said indebtedness as his interest may appear. Upon request Trustors shall deliver the original of said policies or policy to the holder of said indebtedness.

Trustors further agree to pay all taxes and assessments thereon, general or special, and to pay them when due, and, upon demand of said Trustee or the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness, to pay, discharge, or remove, any and all liens which may be hereafter placed against said property and which shall adversely affect the lien of this instrument or enforcement of the terms and provisions hereof; to keep the improvements on said property in good repair and preservation, and in case the Trustee or his successors or the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness shall hereafter be required to appear in any court or tribunal to enforce, or defend the title to, or possession of, said property, or the lien of this instrument, or appear in any court to prove the above indebtedness, all the costs and expenses of such appearance or proceedings, together with a reasonable attorney's fee, shall be allowed, and be payable by Trustors upon demand of the Trustee or lawful owner or holder of said indebtedness, and, upon failure to do any of these things, then said Trustee, or the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness may do any or all of these things and the amounts so paid shall bear interest from the date of payment at the highest rate then permissable in the State of Tennessee, and shall be and become a part of the indebtedness secured hereby.

Now, if Trustors shall pay the secured indebtedness when due according to its terms, pay all real estate taxes when due against the property conveyed hereunder during the term of the indebtedness, maintain the property in good repair, maintain the required insurance and pay any and all sums when due as aforesaid, then this trust conveyance shall be of no further force or effect. But if said indebtedness, or any installment thereof, or interest thereon, is not paid promptly when due, or if, Trustors fail to pay said taxes when due, maintain the property in good repair or insured, or pay said other sums when due, as herein provided, and Trustors fail to reimburse the Trustee, or the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness for all sums with interest, so expended by said Trustee, or the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness, within thirty days from date of such payment, this trust conveyance shall remain in full force and effect, and at the option of the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness then past due and unpaid, all remaining unpaid indebtedness, and installments thereof, shall become due and payable at once, without notice, and the said Trustee, or his successor in trust, is hereby authorized and empowered, upon giving twenty days' notice by three publications in any newspaper, daily or weekly, published in Davidson County, Tennessee, to sell said property at the front door of the Court House in said County to the highest bidder for cash, at public outcry, free from the equity of redemption, homestead, dower and all other exemptions of every kind, which are hereby expressly waived; and the said Trustee, or his successor in trust, is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver a deed to the purchaser. The creditor may bid at any sale under this trust conveyance. The Trustee may, at any time after default in the payment of any of said indebtedness, enter and take possession of said property, and shall only account for the net rents actually received by him. It is further agreed that in the event the Trustee fails, before selling said property, as herein provided to enter and take possession thereof, the purchaser shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof upon the delivery to him by the Trustee of a deed for said property. In case of sale hereunder, the proceeds will be applied by the Trustee as follows:

1st. To the payment of all costs, charges and expenses of executing this conveyance and enforcing said lien as herein provided; also reasonable attorney's fees for advice in the premises, or for instituting or defending any litigation which may arise on account of the execution of this conveyance, or the enforcement of said lien; also the expenses of any such litigation.

2nd. To the payment of all taxes which may be unpaid on said premises.

3rd. To the payment of all unpaid indebtedness herein secured, and any and all sums expended in the protection of said property, as herein authorized.

4th. The residue, if any, will be paid to Trustors, their order, representatives or assigns.

In case of the death, absence, inability, or refusal to act of said Trustee at any time when action under the foregoing power and trusts may be required, the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness, or if more than one when said indebtedness is represented by notes, then of the first-maturing unpaid note, or upon his refusal or failure so to do, then the holder in order of the next maturing notes, is hereby authorized and empowered to name and appoint a successor to execute this trust by an instrument in writing to be recorded in the Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, and the title herein conveyed to the above named Trustee shall be vested in said successor.
