FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the 26th day of June, 1978 before the Honorable James M. Swiggart, Judge, upon the complaint for absolute divorce filed by complainant, answer and cross-complaint filed by defendant, request by counsel for the defendant for a continuance, which motion was denied, testimony of the complainant, his corroborative witnesses, submission to the court of the discovery deposition of the defendant, statement of counsel in open court and from the entire record in this cause. From all of which the Court finds that the defendant, Frances Lucille Sullivan Shelton, has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward the complainant as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper, and that she is guilty of committing adultery. It is therefore ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the cross-complaint for absolute divorce filed by defendant, Frances Lucille Sullivan Shelton, is hereby dismissed.

It is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved and the complainant, Charles Reginald Shelton, is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that all right, title and interest which the defendant, Frances Lucille Sullivan Shelton, has in and to the house and lot of the parties located at 223 Peachtree Street, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, more particularly described as follows:

Being the easterly 22 ft. of Lot No. 4 and the westerly 28 ft. of Lot No. 5 on the Map of W.F. Davis' Subdivision of Block No. 22, Cumberland Nurseries Plan, of record in Book 332, page 25, Register's Office for said County.

Said parts of said lots front 50 ft. on the south side of Peachtree Street and run back between parallel lines 238 ft. to an alley.

Being the same property conveyed to Charles R. Shelton and wife, Frances L. Shelton, by deed from L. N. Yearwood and wife, Hattie P. Yearwood, of record in Book 2341, page 107, RODC, Tennessee.

is divested out of her and the sole and exclusive ownership in said real property is vested in the complainant, Charles Reginald Shelton, in fee simple, absolute ownership.

It is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that these parties had a savings account in a substantial amount at Fidelity Federal Savings and Loan Association under account number 048-000497 and that the defendant, Frances Lucille Sullivan Shelton, has withdrawn the sum of $6,450.00 at the time of the separation which amount the Court will allow her to retain; however, after the service of an injunction process upon her, she later made two withdrawals totaling $4,000.00 in violation of the Court's injunction and therefore the Court finds her in contempt for making said withdrawals and orders her to purge herself of contempt by immediately refunding the sum of $4,000.00 to the account at Fidelity Federal Savings and Loan Association, or in the alternative, to account for the money and appear and show cause on the 25-th day of August, 1978, then and there to show cause why she should not be punished for violating the orders of this Court.

It is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED by the Court that there is approximately $2,843.00 remaining in the Fidelity Federal Savings and Loan Association account number 048-000497 and that said amount is awarded as the exclusive property of the complainant, Charles Reginald Shelton, and Fidelity Federal Savings and Loan Association is directed to immediately turn said sum or sums over to Charles Reginald Shelton, and said Fidelity Federal Savings and Loan Association is enjoined and restrained from honoring any withdrawal from said account by the defendant, Frances Lucille Sullivan Shelton.

It is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the defendant will be allowed to retain ownership of all the personal property presently in her possession and all remaining personal property, household goods and furnishings and automobiles in the possession of the complainant shall become his exclusive property.

The costs of this cause are taxed against the defendant, Frances Lucille Sullivan Shelton, for all of which execution may issue, if necessary.
