WILL OF J. C. HEAD

I, J. C. Head, of Cheatham County, Tennessee, do hereby make this instrument to be my last will and testament and do hereby expressly revoke and cancel any and all other wills made by me heretofore.

First: I direct that all my just debts, including my funeral expenses and the expenses of the administration of my estate, be paid by my executor as soon after my death as practicable.

Second: I bequeath to my wife the automobile I own at my death; I give and devise to my son Richard all the residential real estate and dwelling houses that I own at my death in trust, to furnish and maintain for my widow her choice in her own absolute discretion of one such dwelling house for her to live in during her widowhood, and further to hold, manage, or sell in his own absolute discretion only for the support or benefit of my wife during her widowhood all the rest of the said residential property so that he pays all the taxes, insurance, repairs, and other expenses of all of the said real property (including the dwelling house chosen by my wife for her residence), and also pays from the remaining income of the said real property at least four hundred dollars a month in cash (or more in his own absolute discretion) for the support or maintenance of my wife during her widowhood, and retains any remainder of such income subject to the terms of this trust.

Third: I devise all the other real estate that I own at my death to my son Richard, and I also devise to my son Richard at my wife's death or remarriage all of the real estate included in the trust which is established above for my wife's benefit; and I also bequeath all of the notes receivable and money which I own at my death to my son Richard, and I bequeath all of the money and other property in the said trust to my son Richard at my wife's death or remarriage.

Fourth: Subject to the foregoing I give my remaining property equally to my children, having already made certain provisions for them during my lifetime; and I direct my executor to have such property sold for division of the sale proceeds equally among my children in cash.

And finally: I appoint my son Richard the executor of this will, and if he is unable or unwilling to serve then I appoint my grandson Tommy Head the executor of this will; and I direct that no bond be required of either of the said executors named herein.

In witness whereof I have hereto set my signature this April 17th, 1978.

J. C. Head

The foregoing instrument was signed by J. C. Head as his last will and testament in the presence of us the undersigned who, at his request and in his sight and presence and in the presence of each other, have signed our named hereto as attesting witnesses, this April 17th, 1978.
