FINAL DECREE

This cause came to be heard on the 29th day of October 1981, before the Honorable Steve North, Judge of the Fifth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee. Based upon the testimony of the plaintiff and witnesses, the statements of counsel, and the entire record in this cause, the Court finds that an Absolute Divorce should be granted to the plaintiff on the statutorily alleged grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

Further, the Court finds that the custody of the parties minor child shall be awarded to the plaintiff with the defendant to have reasonable visitation rights.

Further, the Court finds that child support shall be set in the amount of $450.00 per month payable bi-monthly in the sum of $225.00, beginning November 15, 1981.

Further, the Court finds that periodic payments of alimony shall be paid the plaintiff in the sum of $150.00 per month, payable bi-monthly in the sum of $75.00, beginning November 15, 1981.

Further, the Court finds that defendant shall provide Hospitalization and Medical Insurance coverage for the parties minor child.

Further, the Court finds that the plaintiff shall receive all rights, title and interest in and to the parties real property described as:
