We further covenant and bind ourselves our heirs and representatives, to warrant and forever defend the title to said real estate to said James R. Hillin his (successors), heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons.

And now, for the purpose of better and more effectually securing the payment of said lien indebtedness; rendering unnecessary court proceedings for the enforcement of said lien in the event of the non-payment of said indebtedness and installments thereof, as they mature, as hereinafter provided, and for the consideration of one dollar paid in cash, receipt of which is acknowledged, the said James R. Trustors further agree to pay all taxes and assessments thereon, general or special, and to pay them when due, and, upon demand of said trustee or the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness, to pay, discharge, or remove, any and all liens which may be hereafter placed against said property and which shall adversely affect the lien of this instrument or enforcement of the terms and provisions hereof; to keep the improvements on said property in good repair and preservation, and in case the trustee or his successors or the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness shall hereafter be required to appear in any court or tribunal to enforce, or defend the title to, or possession of, said property, or the lien of this instrument, or appear in any court to prove the above indebtedness, all the costs and expenses of such appearance or proceedings, together with a reasonable attorney's fee, shall be allowed, and be payable by trustors upon demand of the trustee or lawful owner or holder of said indebtedness, and, upon failure to do any of these things, then said trustee, or the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness may do any or all of these things and the amounts so paid shall bear 6 percent interest from the date of payment and shall be and become a part of the indebtedness secured hereby.

Now, if trustors shall pay the indebtedness aforesaid when due, according to its terms, and pay taxes, keep up repairs, and keep said premises insured, and pay any and all other sums when due, as aforesaid, then this trust conveyance shall be of no further force or effect. But if said indebtedness, or any installment thereof, or interest thereon, is not paid promptly at maturity, or if, failing to pay taxes, keep up repairs or keep said premises insured, or pay said other sums when due, as herein provided, trustors fail to reimburse the trustee, or lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness for all sums with interest, so expended by said trustee, or lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness, within thirty days from date of such payment, this trust conveyance shall remain in full force and effect, and at the option of the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness then past due and unpaid, all remaining unpaid indebtedness, and installments thereof, shall become due and payable at once, without notice, and the said trustee, or his successor in trust, is hereby authorized and empowered, upon giving twenty days' notice by three publications in any newspaper, daily or weekly, published in Davidson County, Tennessee, to sell said property at the front door of the Court House in said County to the highest bidder for cash, at public outcry, free from the equity of redemption, homestead, dower and all other exemptions of every kind, which are hereby expressly waived; and the said trustee, or his successor in trust, is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver a deed to the purchaser.
