CHARLIE FOX, JR.
COUNTY CLERK

ORDER PROBATING WILL

1. This cause was heard before the Honorable Wilburn H. Kelley, Jr., Judge of the County Court of Williamson County, Tennessee, on September 14, 1981, upon the petition of Claude Callicott to probate the will of his deceased wife, Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott. The petitioner produced in open Court a paper writing consisting of one page purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott, dated October 15, 1978, said instrument in its entirety being handwritten.

2. The Court finds from the testimony of Claude Callicott that his wife, Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott, on October 15, 1978, wrote entirely in her own handwriting said one-page instrument and signed her name Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott thereto, that she then placed said instrument in an envelope and sealed the envelope and wrote on the back of same that she delivered said envelope containing said instrument to her husband, the petitioner, and that he, at her request, placed said envelope containing said instrument in his metal safe in his law office at 513 Nashville City Bank Building, and that after his wife's death, he opened the envelope, removed the instrument from same and has retained up to the filing of the petition in this cause said envelope and said instrument.

"Will of: Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott

October 15, 1978",

3. The Court finds from the testimony of Claude Callicott, Clinton Callicott and Carolyn Callicott that they are familiar with and know the handwriting of the said Testatrix, and that the signature to said instrument and all its material provisions are in the handwriting of the said Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott, and that said instrument was and is her Last Will and Testament, and that it is entitled to be admitted to Probate as such. It appears and the Court finds that the three persons named above who have testified that said instrument in its entirety and said signature are all in the handwriting of Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott, are all disinterested witnesses, and that none of them takes any property under said Will, and that the sole beneficiary of said Will is Dorris Callicott Douglass, who is the daughter of Claude Callicott and Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott.

4. It is accordingly ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that said instrument bearing date of October 15, 1978, is the true, whole and Last Will and Testament of said Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott and the same is hereby admitted to Probate as such, and the Clerk of this Court is directed to file and record same.

5. It is further ORDERED that Claude Callicott be and hereby is appointed Administrator with the Will annexed of the estate of Catherine Hardy Dorris Callicott, and that appropriate Letters of Administration with the Will annexed will be issued to him by the Clerk upon his filing proper bond in the amount of $10,000.
