FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on the 8th day of December, 1978, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee upon the Plaintiff's Complaint for Absolute Divorce averring irreconcilable differences having arisen between the Parties and seeking Court approval of a Property Settlement Agreement previously entered into by the Parties; which document was filed with Plaintiff's Complaint; personal service of process had upon the Defendant; order for default judgment duly entered; the Defendant not personally appearing; testimony of the Plaintiff heard in open Court; statements of the Solicitor for the Plaintiff; and the entire record; from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the allegations of the Complaint have been sustained in that irreconcilable differences have arisen between the Parties as contemplated by Tennessee Code Annotated Section 36-801 (II); and further that the Property Settlement Agreement as appended to the Complaint should be approved as it appears appended to the Complaint hereinbefore filed; a copy of which is attached hereto and is incorporated herein as though set out verbatim;

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony be, and hereby are, forever severed between the Parties, and that each be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person and that;

The Property Settlement Agreement be, and hereby is, approved by the Court as it appears appended to the Complaint hereinbefore filed; a copy of which is attached to this final decree and which is incorporated herein as though set out verbatim.

Entered at Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, this _____ day of _____ 1978.

The costs are taxed to the Defendant with execution to issue.

CIVIL ACTION NO. _____

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT

AGREEMENT

Whereas irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties (Frances Anne Hampton, nee Taylor, hereinafter referred to as Plaintiff and Clyde Wayne Hampton, hereinafter referred to as Defendant) to the extent that said differences appear to be beyond any foreseeable reconciliation; and

Whereas the grounds of the contemplated divorce to be filed by Plaintiff will be irreconcilable differences as contemplated by the provisions of Tennessee Code Annotated Sections 36-801 (II); and

Whereas the parties have made full and complete financial disclosure as to the liabilities, assets and income of each other and each desires to make an equitable settlement of the property rights of the other and to provide for adequate and sufficient means for the maintenance of their three (3) minor children: namely; Clyde Dwayne Hampton (age 5); Vanessa Rene Hampton (age 4); and Sean Marshall (age 2); and further to make provision relative to custody and visitation rights of said minor children;

Now therefore for the reasons hereinbefore set out, the following terms and provisions are agreed upon as to the mutual rights of Plaintiff and Defendant:

1. The Defendant shall pay directly to the Plaintiff on or before the first of each succeeding month the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) as child support for the parties three (3) minor children hereinbefore named.

2. Custody of said minor children shall be vested in the Plaintiff with reasonable visitation rights to the Defendant excepting and expressly providing that the Plaintiff shall have custody of the three (3) children on every other Christmas Day.

3. The Defendant shall be responsible for and shall pay any and all mutual liabilities and/or indebtedness of the parties; excepting the parties house and lot hereinafter expressly provided for.

4. All right, title and interest to any and all personal property of the parties, wherever located shall be vested in the Plaintiff and divested out of the Defendant; excepting such personalty that the Defendant has in his possession as of the date of this agreement.

5. All right, title and interest to the parties' house and lot located at 343 Dinwiddie Drive, Madison Tennessee 37115 shall be vested in the Plaintiff and divested out of the Defendant to be the Plaintiff's absolutely in fee simple.

6. The Defendant expressly agrees to keep in force and effect the present medical insurance on the parties three (3) minor children as the same presently existing with his employer, Pathlab, Inc. or to procure substantially similar insurance coverage by whatever means relative to said children in the event that the present coverage should cease.

7. It is further expressly understood that this agreement is subject to the approval of the Court, however, the Plaintiff will make no further financial demands on the Defendant except in the event of changed circumstances as allowed by law.

This agreement is entered into at Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee on the date or dates subscribed and sworn.
