The original Complaint herein was filed on August 13, 1981, and defendant was duly served with same. Upon the testimony of the parties and witnesses, and arguments of Counsel, and upon the whole record before the Court, this Honorable Court was of the opinion that the complainant, Kay Butler Jones, should be granted an Absolute Divorce upon the grounds of Cruel and Inhuman Treatment.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

2. That the real property now owned by the parties as tenants by the entireties at 4433 Baton Rouge Drive, Hermitage, Tennessee, be divested out of the complainant and the defendant as tenants by the entireties and that complainant and defendant shall hold said property as tenants in common, except that complainant, Kay Butler Jones, shall have the right to remain and live in said house so long as she desires or is remarried. The interest of the complainant, Kay Butler Jones, upon the sale of the real property shall be seventy-five (75%) per cent of the proceeds of said property, and the interest of the defendant, Earl Glenn Jones, shall be twenty-five (25%) per cent of the proceeds upon the sale of said property, if sold.

3. That the defendant, Earl Glenn Jones, shall pay the sum of Seven Hundred Twenty Five ($725.00) Dollars to complainant, Kay Butler Jones, as the reasonable attorneys fee of James W. Rutherford, Attorney for complainant.

4. That the real, unimproved property owned by the parties as tenants by the entireties shall be divested out of them as tenants by the entireties and re-vested in them as tenants in common, with each party retaining a fifty (50%) per cent interest in said property. Upon the sale of said property, the proceeds will be divided equally.

5. That the cemetery lots that presently belong to the parties shall be divested out of the complainant, Kay Butler Jones, and into the defendant, Earl Glenn Jones.

6. That the complainant shall make a list of furniture to give to the defendant, said list to be agreed upon by the attorneys and the parties. If not agreeable, the matter will be reserved for further ruling by this Honorable Court.

7. That all right, title and interest of the defendant in and to the 1974 Impala automobile is divested out of the defendant and is vested solely in the complainant, and that all right, title and interest of the complainant in the defendant's automobile is divested out of the complainant and vested solely in the defendant.

8. That the costs of this cause are taxed to the defendant, Earl Glenn Jones.

Enter this 2nd day of Dec., 1981.
