VIRGINIA: In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of the City of Radford the 29th day of April, 1981

In re: Will of PAULINE L. PHILLIPS

A paper writing bearing date July 7, 1980, purporting to be the will of Pauline L. Phillips, deceased, was this day presented by David B. Phillips, the Executor named therein, and offered for probate.

It appearing that Pauline L. Phillips resided in the City of Radford, Virginia, and that she died April 20, 1981; and it appearing that the aforesaid paper writing has been executed in Tennessee, which law of proving a will conincides with Virginia law, pursuant to the provisions of Section 64.1-87.1, Code of Virginia, as amended, and that an affidavit attached to the said paper writing executed by the testatrix, and Grady Worley, John E. Bills and Edna L. Hamblin, the subscribing witnesses, establishes the said paper writing to be the true last will and testament of Pauline L. Phillips, deceased, who was at the time over eighteen years of age and capable of making a will.

Thereupon the said paper writing consisting of seven typewritten pages is hereby admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded as such.

Thereupon David B. Phillips, the Executor named therein, asked permission to qualify as such, whereupon, such permission being granted, he appeared, made oath as the law directs, and entered into and acknowledged a bond as such Executor in the penalty of $60,000.00, payable and conditioned according to law, but without security, the will requesting that none be required.

And certificate is granted David B. Phillips for obtaining a probate of the said will of Pauline L. Phillips, deceased, in due form.
