This cause came on to be heard on this 15th day of September, 1980, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original petition and the amended and supplemental petition filed in this cause, default judgment having been entered against the defendant, testimony of plaintiff and witnesses examined in Open Court, statement of counsel, and the entire record in this cause; from all of which the Court finds that the allegation of the plaintiff's bill has been fully sustained by the proof, that is, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards the plaintiff as would render further cohabitation between the parties unsafe and improper for her to remain under his dominion and control; and that, therefore, the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute divorce from the defendant.

It further appearing to the Court that the plaintiff had requested the home of the parties to be vested solely in her.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the home of the parties located at 3209 Leswood Lane, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, shall be divested out of the defendant and all of his right, title and interest in this home shall be vested solely in the plaintiff, Martha Pollard. The defendant shall execute all documents necessary to effect this transfer.

It further appearing to the Court that certain items were needed or belonged to the plaintiff and that these items should be hers solely.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff is awarded the stove, refrigerator, china cabinet and matching table, chinaware, and the bedroom suite.
