FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the ____ day of_____, 1982, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, at Nashville, upon the complaint of Susan Kay Henley Simpson for an Absolute Divorce from James David Simpson, on the grounds of Irreconcilable Differences.

The complaint herein was filed on July 30, 1981, service of process was had on the defendant, and a Property Settlement Agreement was duly filed. This cause being uncontested and the necessary time having expired for the complaint herein to remain on file pursuant to the provisions for divorce upon the grounds of Irreconcilable Differences, complainant having filed written Interrogatories in this cause, and it was the opinion of the Court that an Absolute Divorce should be awarded to complainant in this cause, and the Court finds that the parties have made adequate and sufficient provision by written agreement for the custody and maintenance of any children of the marriage and for the equitable settlement of any property rights between the parties, and that said agreement should be approved.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. The complainant, Susan Kay Henley Simpson, is awarded an Absolute Divorce from the defendant, James David Simpson, on the grounds of Irreconcilable Differences.

2. The Property Settlement Agreement entered into between the parties, as set forth in pertinent part below, is approved and incorporated into and made a part of this Decree:

I.

That Husband will proceed to trial to obtain an absolute divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

II.

Both Husband and Wife acknowledge that this Agreement shall be binding upon the parties, their heirs, executors and assigns and that this Agreement will not be modified by oral agreement or parole evidence.

III.

The care, custody and control of the two minor children of the parties, to-wit: James Ryan Simpson and Amanda Jean Simpson, shall be awarded to the Wife, with reasonable visitation privileges reserved to the Husband, including every other weekend from Friday at 6:30 P.M. until Sunday at 6:30 P.M., one-half of the Christmas and spring holidays and two weeks each summer.

IV.

Husband agrees to pay $240.00 per month, directly to the Wife, for the support and maintenance of the minor children.

V.

All right, title and interest which the Wife has in and to the home of the parties located at 3710 Norma Drive, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, shall be divested out of her and the sole and exclusive ownership shall be vested in the Husband, it being his responsibility to assume the mortgage indebtedness thereon, and to hold Wife harmless from any liability thereon.

VI.

Husband shall be awarded the following items of personal property: 1972 Chevrolet automobile, the Derringer, his clothing and jewelry and tools. All other items of personal property shall become the exclusive property of the Wife.

VII.

Husband shall be allowed to claim the two minor children as exemptions for federal income tax purposes, it being conclusively presumed that he has paid more than one-half of their support.

VIII.

Each party shall be responsible for paying their own attorney fees and Husband agrees to pay the final court costs.

IX.

Husband agrees to maintain medical insurance coverage for the benefit of the minor children.

3. That the costs of this cause are taxed to the defendant.

Enter this 21st day of June, 1982.
