This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court on February 17, 1961, upon the original bill, pro confesso, heretofore entered against the defendant, and oral testimony of the witnesses examined in open court. From which it appeared to the Court that the facts charged in the bill are true and that the defendant had been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment to complainant as to render her cohabitation with him unsafe and improper.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony now subsisting between the complainant and the defendant be absolutely and forever dissolved and that the complainant be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that all the right, title and interest, which the defendant has in and to all the furniture in complainant's possession at her home, 513 Rosedale Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, and a certain tract or parcel of land, being be and the same is divested out of the defendant, Ellis Ransom Farris, and vested in the complainant, Ruby Jean Farris.

The exclusive custody of James Ellis Farris, Joan Farris and Charles Farris, minor children of the parties, is committed to the complainant but the defendant is not relieved of his obligation for their support and maintenance and on his failure so to do, the complainant or other person as next of friend to the minor children may make application to the Court to fix a definite sum for the defendant to pay and the case is retained in court for this purpose.

The defendant will pay Lewis C. Payne, solicitor for the complainant, $150.00 as his fee in this cause for his services to date and the cost of the cause. An execution may issue for payment of said sum and cost.
