FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard this 13th day of February 1969, before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge, upon the complainant's original bill, the pro confesso heretofore duly entered and granted, testimony of the complainant and his corroborating witnesses heard in open Court and upon the entire record in the cause from all of which the Court finds: that the defendant is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper; that complainant should be granted an absolute divorce from defendant, custody of the four children of the parties and that all defendant's right, title and interest in and to all real and personal property, jointly owned by the parties, should be divested from her and vested in complainant to help support and maintain said children.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and they are hereby absolutely and perpetually dissolved and the complainant restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court, that the complainant have the legal custody of the said four minor children of the parties and that defendant's right, title and interest in and to all real and personal property heretofore jointly belonging to the parties be divested out of
