This cause came on to be heard on the 2nd day of June, 1977, before the Honorable Joe C. Loser, Judge, upon the original bill filed by plaintiff, answer and cross-bill of the defendant, witnesses heard in open Court, argument of counsel, and the entire record in this cause; from all of which the Court finds that the defendant is entitled to an absolute divorce from the plaintiff upon the statutory ground of cruel and inhuman treatment; that the defendant should be awarded the exclusive care, custody and control of the three minor children of the parties and that the plaintiff is to have reasonable visitation rights with the three minor children; that the plaintiff shall pay $67.50 per week as child support beginning when he is re-employed; that all right, title and interest the plaintiff has in the home of the parties located at 224 Aurora Avenue, Madison, Tennessee, together with the household furniture and furnishings, shall be divested out of him and vested solely in the defendant; and that the defendant shall be awarded the joint bank accounts of the parties.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff, Richard Calvin Spence, shall pay the sum of $67.50 per week as child support directly to the defendant, Jean Son Spence, beginning when he is re-employed.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that all right, title and interest the plaintiff, Richard Calvin Spence, has in the home of the parties located at 224 Aurora Avenue, Madison, Tennessee, be divested out of him and vested solely in defendant, Jean Son Spence, together with all the household furniture and furnishings located therein. Said property is described as follows:

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the defendant, Jean Son Spence, be awarded the joint bank accounts of the parties.
