BOBBY GARRETT GREGORY, JR.

FINAL JUDGMENT

This cause came to be heard August 8, 1983 before the Honorable James M. Swiggart, Judge of the Sixth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee; upon the Complaint for Absolute Divorce, the answer and counter-complaint being filed, but being subsequently withdrawn, statement of counsel, testimony of witnesses and upon the entire record. The Court finds that the parties have experienced irreconcilable differences and those conditions continue to exist, therefore the marriage should be dissolved. The Court further finds that the Property Settlement and Collateral Agreement as submitted makes full and adequate provisions for the settlement of the entire marital estate between the parties and the settlement is just and equitable to all parties. The Court further finds that the written Property Settlement and Collateral Agreement makes full and adequate provisions for custody, visitation and child support which is just and equitable to all parties, including the minor children. The Court further finds an arrearage exists under the current pendente lite order for failure to pay housenotes as they have become due.
