FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

BOOK 6172 PAGE 151

This cause came on to heard on the 3rd day of October, 1983, before the Honorable Harry S. Lester, Judge, upon the pleadings, proof introduced, statement of counsel and the entire record in the cause, from all of which it appeared to the Court that the plaintiff should be granted an absolute divorce from the defendant on the statutory grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved, and the plaintiff is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED that the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of the parties' two minor children, namely, Matthew Jeremy Larkins and Daniel Lynn Larkins, with liberal visitation privileges to the defendant.

It is further ORDERED that the defendant pay to plaintiff the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars per week toward the support and maintenance of the parties' minor children. The defendant shall maintain in full force and effect medical and hospitalization insurance on the two minor children.

It is further ORDERED that the real property located at 412 Dawn Drive, Nashville, Tennessee, shall be held as tenants in common, and shall be placed on the open market for sale. If the real property is not sold within ninety days, the property shall be sold at public auction. Upon the sale of the property, the net proceeds shall be divided equally between the parties. Until the sale of the property, the defendant shall pay all house notes.

It is further ORDERED that the defendant have as his sole and separate property the Pioneer stereo system and his knife collection.

It is further ORDERED that the plaintiff have as her sole and separate property all of the household furniture, furnishings, appliances and also else located in and around the home.

It is further ORDERED that the defendant pay to JAMES W. RUTHERFORD, an attorney's fee of $500.00.

The costs of the cause are taxed to the defendant, and for all of the above let execution issue if necessary.
