FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Muriel Robinson, on the 9th day of February, 1984, upon the complaint for absolute divorce, default judgment heretofore taken, statement of counsel, testimony of plaintiff and two witnesses from all of which the court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute divorce upon two grounds: cruel and inhuman treatment and habitual drunkenness.

The court finds that the plaintiff be granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and that she be restored to all rights and privileges of an unmarried person; and

It is, therefore, so ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED.

It is further ORDERED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the parties be and hereby are forever perpetually dissolved, that the plaintiff be granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and that both parties be restored to the rights and privileges of unmarried persons subject to the provisions of this judgment contained herein pertaining to the division of jointly held property.

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all right, title and interest of the defendant Charlie Dixon Earps in the parties' home place located at 406 Paragon Mills Road and described in Book 4461, Page 292 of the Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee, be divested from him and vested by this decree in plaintiff Nancy Viomer Earps creating a fee simple interest. Said land being known as 406 Paragon Mills Road located in Davidson County, Tennessee and being more fully described as follows:

> Land in the 5th Civil District being lot No. 2 on the plan of Windsor Park, of record in book 3600, page 64, Register's Office for said County, described as follows:
>
> Lot No. 2 fronts 75.00 feet on the northeasterly side of Paragon Mills Road and extends back 234.97 feet on the northwesterly line and 192.62 feet on the southeasterly line to a broken line in the rear measuring 69.27 and 16.88 feet thereon.
>
> Being the same property conveyed to Carlie D. Earps and wife, Nancy H. Earps by deed from Jack Williams and wife, Frances Williams, of record in Book 4461, page 292, said Register's Office.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the husband shall be divested of any right, title and interest in the parties' furniture and household furnishings, as same are vested solely in the name of plaintiff Nancy Viomer Earps. The husband, however, shall retain his interests in his work tools and television set.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the husband, Charlie Dixon Earps, shall convey and is divested from any right, title or interest in the 1982 Ford Escort automobile, Title Number 29229246, Registration Number 0051525, which was purchased by the parties' minor child, Connie Earps. The husband shall be divested of any interest, right or title in this automobile and the same shall be vested in the complainant, Nancy Viomer Earps.

It is further ORDERED that the court costs in this cause be taxed to the defendant, for which let execution issue.
