FINAL DECREE

This cause came to be heard on the 30th and 31st days of January, 1984 before the Honorable Muriel Robinson, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of Complaint, the Answer and Counterclaim of the Defendant, the Answer to the Counterclaim, the amended and supplemental Complaint of the Complainant and the Answer thereto, witnesses introduced in open court and the entire record in this cause, from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the Defendant, Floyd Thomas Martin, should be awarded an absolute divorce on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment in accordance with T.C.A. Section 36-802.

IT IS, FURTHER, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED BY THIS COURT as follows:

1. Principal custody of the minor children is awarded to the Complainant with said Defendant, Floyd Thomas Martin, having reasonable rights of visitation.

2. The Defendant is awarded his Masonic ring, the engagement ring, the wedding band and an additional man's ring.

3. The Defendant is awarded the items in his possession listed as "jewelry" in his sworn financial statement valued in the amount of $500.00.

4. The Defendant is awarded the proceeds from the sale of the Travel-All in the amount of $800.00.

5. The Defendant is awarded his knife collection with the glass case and other paraphernalia.

6. The Defendant is awarded his gun collection and rack.

7. The Defendant is awarded the Volkswagon automobile and the Camaro automobile.

CASH

8. The Defendant is awarded from the furniture contained in the residence, the bedroom suite of his choice, a dresser and the stereo.

9. The Complainant, Robbie Jeanette Martin, is awarded the one carat diamond ring and remaining gold coin that is in her possession.

10. The Complainant is awarded all furniture with the exception of the one bedroom suite, dresser and stereo mentioned in Paragraph 8 above.

11. The Complainant will maintain possession of the car that is titled in her name and she will be responsible for the lien thereon.

12. The Defendant will continue the medical and dental insurance for the minor daughters. Any cost over and above the insurance will be divided equally among the two parties.

13. The homeplace maintained during the marriage located at 200 Aurora Avenue in Madison, Tennessee, will be vested as Tenants-in-Common with each of the parties to own a one-half share. The home is to be sold and the proceeds from the sale to be divided equally between the parties. Each of the parties has an option to buy out the other party if he/she should wish to within 60 days from the date of this Decree.

14. The Defendant shall retain possession of the house and will maintain the mortgage note on it until the house is sold. When the house is sold, the Defendant will be reimbursed out of the proceeds of sale one-half of the mortgage notes paid from the date of this order until sale.

15. The Defendant shall pay the Complainant $70.00 per week to be designated as child support.

16. Court costs shall be divided between the parties and each party will pay its own attorneys' fees. A lien may be placed against each party's share from the sale of the home for the court costs and attorneys' fees, if need be.

17. Each party is to be responsible for the debts they have incurred in their own names.
