SEARCY COVINGTON)

FINAL DECREE BOOK 6315 PAGE 743

This cause came on to be heard on this the 13th day of August, 1971 before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of Part IV of the Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of divorce, pro confesso entered, depositions entered and upon the entire record in this cause.

From all of which it appears that the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment have been adequately sustained and that the complainant, Callie Covington, is entitled to an absolute divorce.

It further appears to the Court that the custody of the minor children shall be awarded to the complainant and that the defendant shall have the right to see and be with these children at reasonable times and places.

It further appears to the Court that any and all equity which the defendant may have in the house and lot located at 410 Mallory Street be divested out of the defendant and vested in your complainant; said house and lot are described as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being lot No. 9 on the Map of the Re-Subdivision for Joe Kornman, of parts of Lots Nos. 27, 28 and 29 on the Plan of Rains Spring Tract, of record in Plan Book 1, page 109, of the Chancery Court at Nashville, and being a part of the original lots Nos. 28 and 29, and described according to a copy of a survey thereof made by Harvey Gee, April 24, 1948, as follows:
>
> Beginning at a point in the north margin of Mallory Street, the common corner of Lots Nos. 9 and 10; said point being 71 feet east of the 1st alley west of Nolensville Pike, formerly Fourth Avenue, South; thence with the line between said lots 9 and 10 in a northwesterly direction 59.3 feet to a dividing line between Lots Nos. 29 and 30; thence with the line between said lots, north 56° 23' east 32.6 feet to the common corner of Lots Nos. 8 and 9; of said Re-Subdivision; thence with the dividing line between said lots 81.9 feet to the northerly margin of Mallory Street; thence easterly with the north margin of said street 85° 45' west 36 feet to the beginning.
>
> Being part of the property conveyed to Joe Kornman and wife, Ann Kornman by deed from David Wise, Trustee, of record in book 1580, page 355, said Register's Office for said county.
