This cause came on to be heard on the 18th day of March, 1977, before the Honorable Joe Loser, Judge of the Third Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, and upon the original bill filed by the complainant, personal service on the defendant, through the Secretary of State, judgment by default taken thereon; the defendant having failed to appear; testimony of the complainant and his witnesses heard in open Court, statement of Counsel, and from the entire record in this cause, the Court is of the opinion that the allegations of cruel and inhuman treatment in the original complaint has been sustained by the proof and that the complainant, Larry J. Burns, should be granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Magnea Steinunn Hilmarsdoitter Burns, and that she should pay the cost of the cause.

The Court is further of the opinion that the complainant be granted absolute custody of the parties two minor children with reasonable visitation privileges to the defendant. That the furniture and contents owned by the parties be awarded the complainant and that the complainant will retire any miscellaneous indebtedness owed by the parties. That title and possession of house and lot owned by the parties located at 58 Lutie Street vest in the complainant.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the complainant, Larry J. Burns, is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Magnea Steinnun Hilmarsdoitter Burns, and he is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person. Further, that the complainant be awarded absolute custody of the parties two minor children, with reasonable visitation privileges to the defendant.

It is further ORDERED by the Court that the furniture and contents owned by the parties be awarded to the complainant and that the complainant will retire the miscellaneous indebtedness owed by the parties.

It is further ORDERED that title and possession of the house and lot owned by the parties located at 58 Lutie Street vest in the complainant.

It is further ORDERED by the Court that the defendant will pay the cost of this cause for which execution may issue if necessary.
