ORDER ADMITTING WILL TO PROBATE
WITHOUT ADMINISTRATION

BOOK 6392 PAGE 213

This matter came on to be heard before the Honorable James R. Everett, Jr., Judge of the Probate Court of Davidson County, on June 11, 1984, on the petition of William L. Brooks, the nominated executor of the deceased. Based upon the facts set forth in the sworn petition, and the facts set forth in the affidavits attached thereto, the Court finds that decedent was a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, who died on November 13, 1981, at the age of 89, leaving a properly executed will dated June 5, 1981, which was proven by the affidavits of the subscribing witnesses. All of decedent's personal property which would be subject to a court-supervised administration has been distributed as directed in decedent's will, and petitioner has filed a copy of the clearance from the Tennessee Department of Revenue along with his petition. Based upon these findings, it is,

ORDERED that:

1. Decedent's will dated June 5, 1981, be admitted to probate;

2. No letters testamentary be issued to petitioner;

3. No notice be given to either creditors or the Tennessee Department of Revenue, said notice having previously been given; and

4. No court-supervised administration of the decedent's estate is required.
