MAIL END.

I, Stanley Klyman, of 798 Myhr Drive, Nashville, Tennessee, having first been duly sworn make oath to the following:

The real property located at 205 Cherokee Blvd. was deeded to Gus Klyman, an unmarried man, by deed from Frances M. Connor and husband, T. W. Connor, on April 15, 1933 by deed of record in Book 911, page 487, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

The said Gus Klyman died intestate January 21, 1941 in Davidson County, Tennessee leaving as his sole surviving heirs, his widow, Tillie Slutsky Klyman and one child, myself, Stanley Saul Klyman.

The said Tillie Klyman subsequently married Joe M. Guff with whom she lived until the date of her death, June 3, 1984.

There are no debts or inheritance taxes owed by the estate of Gus Klyman. The estate of Tillie Klyman Guff, who only had a life estate interest in the property prior to her demise, would have no interest in the property subsequent to her death nor would the property be subject to any debts or inheritance taxes of her estate.

Executed this 27th day of March, 1985.
