I, Mahaliah Hughes, Clerk, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the [illegible] on file or of record in the case of [illegible] vs. [illegible]
This the [illegible] day of [illegible], 19[illegible].
MAHALIAH HUGHES, CIRCUIT COURT CLERK

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the 15th day of October, 1984, before the Honorable Tom E. Gray, Judge by election for the Honorable Thomas Boyers, IV, Judge of the Circuit Court for Sumner County, Tennessee, upon the Complaint for Divorce filed by the Plaintiff, GLENDA JEANETT SMITHSON, the Answer and Counter-Complaint of the Defendant, RONALD LANE SMITHSON, and Answer for absolute divorce, testimony of the parties, witnesses for each party, arguments of counsel, and the record as a whole. Whereupon, this Court finds that the Plaintiff, GLENDA JEANETT SMITHSON, should be, and hereby is, granted an absolute divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment; that the marital property owned by the parties should be, and hereby is, divided; that the custody of the parties' two minor children should be, and hereby is, awarded to the Plaintiff, GLENDA JEANETT SMITHSON, with the Defendant, RONALD LANE SMITHSON, to pay the sum of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) per month, per child, as child support; and that the Plaintiff, GLENDA JEANETT SMITHSON, should be, and hereby is, granted alimony in futuro, to be paid by the Defendant, RONALD LANE SMITHSON, in the amount of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) per month until her death or remarriage.

In words and phrases, the Court's Memorandum Opinion entered November 21, 1984, is as follows:

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This matter came on to be heard on the 15th day of October, 1984, upon the Complaint, Answer and Cross

Complaint and Answer for Absolute Divorce and the parties being before the Court and the Court having examined the witnesses and considered the evidence, it is the judgment of the Court that Glenda Jeanett Smithson should be granted an absolute divorce on the grounds of Cruel and Inhuman Treatment in that Ronald Lane Smithson would stay out late at night; that he didn't want to have anything to do with the family; that on the 21st day of May, 1984, Ronald Lane Smithson told his wife, Glenda Jeanett Smithson that he no longer loved her and wanted a divorce.

The Court finds the marital estate to consist of the following:

	Value	Encumbrance	Equity
House and Lot 102 Allen Road Hendersonville, TN	$120,000	$36,690.88 1st mortgage 29,746.82 2nd mortgage	$53,500
Office & Veternarian Clinic 601 Gallatin Road Nashville, TN	$120,000	$69,665	$50,400
1976 Thunderbird	1,000
1976 Ford Station Wagon	1,000
Dune Buggy	900
1931 Model A Ford	1,200
1972 Corvette	4,000	5,400
1917 Model T Ford	5,000
1984 Honda CRX	8,600	9,000
Coins	736.20
Household Furniture, jewelry, furs, Sterling silver, tools	26,312
Office Equipment	45,380.97
Ten Shares AT&T	170
Five Shares Playboy	17.50

Before making a division of the marital estate the Court wishes to point out to the parties that the finding of the value of household furniture, sterling silver, jewelry, furs and tools is based upon Exhibit 23 and Exhibit 6 with an effort by the Court to deduct items which came by way of inheritance. The Court recognizes that the dollar amounts provided by the parties were estimated.

The wife is awarded all personal property which came by inheritance from her family, and in addition, to the wife the Court awards the following property:

1. House and lot
   102 Allen Road
   Hendersonville, TN
   (Subject to mortgage and the wife shall hold the husband harmless on the mortgage payments)

2. 1976 Thunderbird

3. 1976 Ford Stationwagon

4. 1972 Corvette
   (Husband is to hold wife harmless on the encumberance)

5. Household furnishings and miscellaneous personal property, with the exception of those items which shall be enumerated to the husband.

6. One-half of the photographs

7. All of her jewelry which either came as a purchase or as a gift from her husband.

8. Mary Kay Cosmetics

9. Coin Collection

10. Ten Shares AT&T

The husband is granted all items which came to him by inheritance from his family. The Court finds the 1962 Corvette to be separate property as it was purchased with money he inherited. In addition the Court awards the following to the husband.

1. Office and Veterinary Clinic (Subject to any lien and 601 Gallatin Road he shall hold the wife
   Nashville, Tennessee harmless as to any lien or encumberance on the vehicle)

2. Dune Buggy

The Court finds that it is in the best interest of the minor children that they be placed in the custody, care and control of the mother with reasonable visitation granted to the father. The Court sets child support at $400.00 per child per months and that pursuant to TCA 34-1-101(b) support shall continue after the age of eighteen if such child or children are in high school. Such duty of support shall continue until the child graduates or the class of which the child is a member graduates whichever occurs first. Child support payments shall be made by the father paying directly to the mother $400.00 on or before the 10th day of each month and $400.00 on or before the 25th day of each month. This does not preclude the father from paying child support payments at $800.00 per month on or before the 10th day of each month. Further, the Court requires that the father pay one-half of all medical, dental and optic bills not covered by insurance for said children.

The Court finds that the parties married on the 26th day of June, 1966, and that each held baccalaureate degrees. The Court finds that the husband, Ronald Lane Smithson, subsequent to the marriage, desired to seek enrollment in a college of Veterinary Medicine. The wife supported the decision and did take employment outside the home to support the family and assist the husband with his goal to become a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine. The Court finds that the wife made tangible and intangible contributions to the education and training of the husband thereby assisting him to realization of his goal and consequently contributing directly to his development as a professional which should provide increased earning capacity. The Court awards periodic alimony in futuro of $300 per month which shall be paid to the wife until death or remarriage. Said periodic alimony payments are to be made by paying directly to the wife $150.00 on or before the 10th day of the month and by paying $150.00 on or before the 25th day of the month. This does not preclude the payment of $300.00 on or before the 10th day of each month.

The husband is required to name the wife as beneficiary on a life insurance policy or life insurance policies of $100,000 to secure future child support and alimony payments. If the husband has no insurance on his life he is required to secure said insurance. The husband is to provide copies of the policy or policies to the wife.

In addition to the award of attorney's fee to Mrs. Glenda Smithson of $300.00 on the 7th day of September, 1984, the Court awards attorney fee of $1,500 to the Plaintiff making a total award of $1,800.

Costs are assessed to Ronald Lane Smithson. Mr. Ron Buchanan is to draw the Final Decree.

ENTERED this 21st day of November, 1984.
