LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF CHARLES L. DYSINGER, SR.

I, CHARLES L. DYSINGER, SR., a resident of Dickson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and realizing the uncertainty of life, but the certainty of death, do hereby make and publish this My Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills that might have been heretofore made by me.

I.

I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary Elizabeth Dysinger, all of the property that I die seized and possessed of, real, personal or mixed, to be hers absolutely. Provided, however, that if my wife should predecease me, then all of my property, real, personal or mixed, including my one-half (1/2) interest in the Nashville property owned by Mary Lou Dysinger and me, I give, devise and bequeath to my Grandson, Charles Micheal Dysinger.

II.

I hereby name Dan Andrews, President of the First National Bank of Dickson, Tennessee, or his successor in office, as Guardian or Trustee for Charles Micheal Dysinger to hold said property until Charles Micheal Dysinger is twenty (20) years of age.

If my wife, Mary Elizabeth Dysinger, should outlive me, then the premiums on the insurance policies carried on my Grandson, Charles Micheal Dysinger, must be paid out of my estate, and I also direct the Trustee or Guardian to do likewise.

It is my intention that the proceeds from these policies be used for educational purposes for my Grandson, but not limited thereto.

III.

I name, nominate and appoint my wife, Mary Elizabeth Dysinger, as the Executrix of this My Last Will and Testament and ask that she be relieved of making bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal at Dickson, Tennessee, this the 23 day of March, 1972.
