FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Irvin H. Kilcrease, Jr., Chancellor of Part I of the Chancery Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, on the 18th day of October, 1984, upon pleadings of the parties, testimony of witnesses in open Court, statements of counsel and the entire record, from all of which the Court finds that James Edwin Hannah died in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, on July 6, 1983, at the age of 72; that on August 15, 1983, defendant Georgia Ella Marshall was appointed Administratrix of the estate of James Edwin Hannah; that on January 10, 1984, plaintiff, Edward Stone, filed the complaint in this case; that clear and convincing evidence is required to establish that Edward Stone is the son of James Edwin Hannah, deceased; that decedent met Mrs. Betty Stone Waters, the mother of Edward Stone, in September, 1947, and approximately three months later had an intimate relationship with Mrs. Waters resulting in her pregnancy and in the birth of Edward Stone on June 28, 1984; that James Edwin Hannah was present at the birth of Edward Stone and paid the attending physician at the birth money for his services; that sometime thereafter, Betty Stone Waters and Edward Stone moved into the residence of James Edwin Hannah and lived several years during which James Edwin Hannah made statements that Edward Stone was his son; that James Edwin Hannah told the community where they lived that Edward Stone was his son on more than one occasion and treated Edward Stone as such for a number of years; that the Court is of the opinion that the proof is clear and convincing that Edward Stone is the son of James Edwin Hannah, is the heir of James Edwin Hannah and is entitled to share in the estate of James Edwin Hannah as his only child according to the Tennessee statutes of intestate succession.

Exhibit to Quit Claim Deed

It is accordingly so ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED.

The costs of this cause are hereby assessed against the estate of James Edwin Hannah, for which execution may issue, if necessary.
