ORDER

BOOK 6664 PAGE 737

This cause came to be heard on October 30, 1984 at 9:00 A.M. in the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, before the Honorable Rose Cantrell, special judge sitting for the Honorable Muriel Robinson, Judge for the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee. Based upon the statements of the witnesses, the statements of counsel, and the record as a whole, the Court finds that the Husband has been guilty of habitual drunkenness, a habit contracted by the Husband after the marriage of the parties, and such habitual drunkenness has rendered it unsafe and improper for the parties to remain as Husband and Wife, and that therefore the Wife should be granted an absolute divorce on the grounds of habitual durnkenness of the Husband, and that further the Wife is the proper person to have sole custody and control of the parties' minor child.

It is therefore ORDERED that the Wife be granted an absolute divorce on the grounds of habitual drunkenness of the Husband.

It is further ORDERED that the custody of the minor child be awarded to the Wife with reasonable weekend visitation being granted to the Husband, but only in a situation where the Wife can supervise such visitation.

Further, it is ORDERED that the Husband is to pay $150.00 per month in the way of child support to the Wife.

Further, it is ORDERED that the Wife is to be granted all title and interest in the parties' home at 2409 Eastland Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, that the Wife is to be responsible for all payments to be made on the mortgage of said home, and the Husband is to be divested of any right and interest in said home.

Further, it is ORDERED that the Wife is granted all title and interest in all of the personal property at 2409 Eastland Avenue, including but not limited to, furnishings and household goods.

Further, it is ORDERED that the Wife is to be given all title and interest in the parties' automobile, and that she is to be responsible for all payments on said automobile, and that the Husband is to be divested of any right and interest in said automobile.

Further, it is ORDERED that the Husband is to return all important papers to the Wife, including papers concerning the automobile, and papers concerning the parties' home and the insurance on the home.

Further, it is ORDERED that the Husband is to maintain a health insurance on the parties' minor child.

Further, it is ORDERED that the Husband is to pay the Wife's reasonable attorney's fees in the amount of $350.00 as supported by the attached affidavit, for which let execution issue if necessary.

Further, it is ORDERED that the Wife is to be responsible for the Court costs in this matter.

Enter this the 16 day of November, 1984.
