Pratt covenants that he is lawfully seized and possessed of said real estate in fee simple, has a good right to convey it, and that the same is unencumbered except as set forth herein, as set forth in Exhibit A, and except for 1985 real estate taxes which have been assumed by Grantee.

Horace C. Pratt further covenants and binds himself, his successors and representatives, to warrant and forever defend the title to said real estate to said Grantee, its successors, heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons.

And now, for the purpose of better and more effectually securing the payment of said lien indebtedness rendering unnecessary court proceedings for the enforcement of said lien in the event of the non-payment of said indebtedness and installments thereof, as they mature, as hereinafter provided, and for the consideration of one dollar paid in cash, receipt of which is acknowledged, the said Grantee hereinafter referred to as Trustor, hereby transfers and conveys unto Alan B. Wright, Trustee, his successors and assigns, the real estate hereinbefore described, with the appurtenances, estate, title and interest thereto belonging upon the following uses and trusts:

Trustor agrees to keep all buildings now on, or to be hereafter erected on said property, insured in some reliable fire insurance company, or companies, for the sum of the unpaid principal balance of said notes (or at least the maximum insurable value) until the indebtedness herein secured is fully paid, and to have the loss, if any, made payable on the policy, or policies, to said Trustee for the benefit of the lawful owner or holder of said indebtedness as his interest may appear or payable to the holder of said indebtedness.

Now, if Trustor shall pay the indebtedness aforesaid when due, according to its terms, and pay taxes, keep up repairs, and keep said premises insured, and pay any and all other sums when due, as aforesaid, then this trust conveyance shall be of no further force or effect. But if said indebtedness, or any installment thereof, or interest thereon, is not paid promptly at maturity, or if, failing to pay taxes, keep up repairs or keep said premises insured, or pay said other sums when due, as herein provided, Trustor fails to reimburse the Trustee, or lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness for all sums, with interest, so expended by said Trustee, or lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness within thirty days from date of such payment, this trust conveyance shall remain in full force and effect, and at the option of the lawful owner and holder of said indebtedness then past due and unpaid, all remaining unpaid indebtedness and installments thereof, shall become due and payable at once, without notice, and the said Trustee, or his successor in trust, is hereby authorized and empowered, upon giving twenty days' notice by three publications in any newspaper, daily or weekly, published in Davidson County, Tennessee to sell said property at the south door of the Courthouse in said County to the highest bidder for cash, at public outcry, free from the equity of redemption, and all other rights of redemption statutory or otherwise (including without limitation those rights of redemption contained in Tennessee Code Annotated Section 66-8-101, et seq.) homestead, dower and all other exemptions of every kind, which are hereby expressly waived; and the said Trustee, or his successor in trust, is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver a deed to the purchaser. In case of sale hereunder, the proceeds will be applied by the Trustee as follows:
