FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard this 25 day of August, 1969, before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge, upon the original bill, the judgment pro confesso heretofore entered, the evidence, statement of counsel and the entire record. From all of which the Court finds that the allegations of the original bill are fully sustained by the proof, that is, that the defendant, James King, is guilty of habitual drunkenness which habit was contracted after the marriage of the parties and said defendant has abandoned the complainant, Ruby Lee King, or turned her out of doors and refused or neglected to provide for her.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that Ruby Lee King be, and she is hereby, granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, James King. The custody of the minor child of the parties, Frances, is hereby committed to the complainant and the defendant shall pay to the complainant through the clerk of this Court the sum of $15.00 per week commencing August 29, 1969 for the support of said child. The complainant is hereby granted a judgment against the defendant in the sum of $135.00 on account of the accumulated arrearage on the pendente lite support order, representing arrearage through August 22, 1969.

It is further ordered by the Court that defendant's interest in the real estate commonly known as 903 Gilmore, Nashville, Tennessee be, and it is hereby, divested out of him and vested in the complainant so as to make her the sole and complete owner thereof. Said real estate is described as follows:

Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot 90 and the west one (1) foot of Lot 91 on the Plan of Montrose Place, of record in Book 57, page 93 Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

Said lot and part of lot adjoins in front together 51 feet on the southside of Gilmore Avenue and runs back between parallel lines 160 feet to an alley.

Being the same property conveyed to James A. King and wife, Ruby King by deed of record in Book 4105, page 917.

It is further ordered by the Court that the defendant pay to David Vincent, solicitor, the sum of $150.00 for his services herein rendered on behalf of the complainant and pay the cost of the cause, for which execution may issue.
