FINAL JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

This cause came to be heard on this 22nd day of January, 1986, before the Honorable Robert Jackson, Judge, upon the original complaint for absolute divorce, personal service of process on the defendant on July 17, 1985 and her answer and counter-complaint, which also was served, the sworn testimony of plaintiff and defendant in open Court, statement of counsel, and the entire record herein, from all of which the Court finds that the Husband's complaint for divorce should be dismissed and that the allegations of the counter-complaint are sustained by the proof; that is, that the Husband has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment towards the Wife as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the original complaint for divorce be dismissed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the counter-plaintiff, Judy Kay Fry Bush, be and is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the counter-defendant, David Lynn Bush, and the parties are restored to all of the rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Wife and her parents, Mae and Jimmy Fry, are hereby awarded the exclusive care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, Teresa Lynn Bush and James Richard Bush.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Husband shall have visitation rights with the parties' minor children every Wednesday night from 5:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m., every other weekend from 6:00 p.m. Friday to 6:00 p.m. Sunday, beginning Friday January 24, and alternate holidays. Husband either may take the children to the church of his choice on Sunday mornings or return them to the Frys' on Sunday in time to attend church.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Husband shall pay to Wife the sum of $32.50/week (not to exceed $150.00/month) to assist with the care, support and maintenance of said minor children. The payments shall be made every Friday beginning January 24, 1986. The Court established support based on sworn testimony by Husband that he has a net income of approximately $165.00/week. If Husband's income goes up, Wife may petition the Court to raise the amount of child support.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the house and lot titled in the parties' names shall be vested solely in Husband. Said property is located at 2830 Jones Avenue and is more specifically described in Book 5888, page 71, Registrar of Deeds Office, Davidson County, Tennessee, to wit:

> Said lot 20-A fronts 70 feet on the Southerly side of Capitol View Avenue and extends back between lines 275 feet on the Westerly side and 275 feet more or less on the Easterly side to a point in the rear.

Husband shall assume full responsibility for payments of all mortgage notes, taxes and other costs incidental to the maintenance of said property.

Within 90 days Husband shall pay to Wife $1,500.00 (fifteen hundred dollars) for her equitable interest in the house and lot. Until such time as that amount is paid to Wife, a judgment in the amount of $1,500.00 shall be a lien on the property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Husband shall retain possession and ownership of the following household items: living room couch and chair, oven, dryer, draperies, and linens. The Wife shall take possession and ownership of the remainder of the household items, including: white French provincial bed and chest, wood bed and chest, three-piece pine bedroom suite, night table, color T.V., ceramic figurines, picture of Elvis, and birth certificates and photographs of the minor children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the costs of this cause be and are hereby taxed to the Husband, for which execution shall issue if necessary.

ENTERED this 5th day of February 1986.
