IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

MARILYN HEATH SAWYER

VS.

WILLIAM ANDREW SAWYER

BOOK 6803 PAGE 972

NO. 75142

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on this the 25th day of July, 1975, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of Part IV of the Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of divorce, pro confesso entered, witnesses examined in open Court, statement of counsel and upon the entire record in this cause.

From all of which it appears that the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment have been adequately sustained by clear, competent and cogent proof, and that the complainant is entitled to an absolute divorce.

The Court further finds that the equity in the house located at 656 Hicks Road, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee should be divested out of the defendant and vested in the complainant subject, of course, to any outstanding liens thereon.

The Court further finds that the defendant has totally failed, refused and neglected to live up to the previous orders of this Court wherein he was ordered to pay the house note and child support. The records indicate that he is $776.00 in the arrears on the house note which he was ordered to pay and he is $225.00 behind on his child support.

The Court further finds that he should pay the sum of $15.00 per week child support and that he have reasonable visitation with said child.

The Court further finds that the custody of said child should belong to the mother, Marilyn Heath Sawyer.

It further appears to the Court that the defendant should pay the solicitor of record for the complainant, H. Tom Kittrell, the sum of $250.00 for his services rendered in this cause.

The [illegible] should issue permanent and enjoining the defendant from coming about the complainant at her work, home or any other place which she habitually frequents.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant, Marilyn Heath Sawyer and the defendant, William Andrew Sawyer, are forever dissolved, and that the complainant be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the equity in the house located at 656 Hicks Road, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee be divested out of the defendant and vested in the complainant, subject, of course, to any outstanding liens thereon and which is more particularly described as follows:

> Being lot #192 on the Plan of Stacy Square Subdivision, Section 4; 87.15 by 185.7; 55 by 174.26.
> Of record in book 4460, page 12, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant has failed, refused and neglected to live up to the previous orders of this Court and he is hereby ORDERED to pay the arrearage on the house note in the amount of $776.00 and to pay the arrearage on the child support in the amount of $225.00.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall pay the sum of $15.00 per week child support and that he have reasonable visitation with said child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the custody of said child shall belong to the mother, Marilyn Heath Sawyer.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall pay the solicitor of record for the complainant, H. Tom Kittrell, the sum of $250.00 for his services rendered in this cause.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a permanent injunction shall issue restraining and enjoining the defendant from coming about the complainant at her work, home or any other place which she habitually frequents.

Defendant shall pay the cost of this cause for which let execution issue, if necessary.
