FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

THis cause came on to be heard upon the original Complaint of Divorce of GLENNA SUE JARRETT, personal service of process upon the Defendant, interlocutory default judgment having been entered, testimony in open Court of the Plaintiff and the entire record form which it satisfactorily appears and is found by the Court as follows:

That irreconcilable differences now exist between the Plaintiff and the Defendant and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant should be dissolved and held for naught and an absolute divorce should be granted.

The Court finds that the Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have custody of the parties minor child and that custody is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff subject to the terms of the written Property Settlement Agreement heretofore entered in this cause.

It further appears to the Court that the parties have entered into a written Property Settlement Agreement which has made adequate and sufficient provisions for the custody and maintenance of the parties minor child and for the equitable settlement of all property rights between the parties.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the Plaintiff, GLENNA SUE JARRETT, be and he is nereby awarded and absolute divorce vrom tne Defendant THADDEUS JARRETT, and the parties are hereby restored to the status of unmarried persons.

2. That the Court further orders the Plaintiff is hereby awarded custody of the parties minor child subject to the terms of the written Property Settlement Agreement dated September 17, 1985 heretofore entered in this cause, and that the Defendant is to pay the sum of $250.00 per month child support to the Plaintiff beginning September 30, 1985.

3. That the Plaintiff's interest in the following described real property is hereby divested out of her and vested in the Defendant as his sole and absolute property:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 165 on the Map of Hortense Place, as of records in Book 161, Page 167, Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee.

4. That each of the parties are hereby ordered to abide by and obey all the terms of the written Property Settlement Agreement which are hereby incorporated into the ordering part of the Decree; these parties to execute any and all documents necessary to carry out the terms and provisions of said written Property Settlement Agreement.

5. That this cause is expressly retained in this Court for the enforcement of this decree.

6. That the cost of this cause are hereby assessed against the Defendant for which let execution issue.
