FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, on the 11th day of January, 1963, upon the original bill filed by the complainant, pro confesso duly entered, property settlement agreement entered into by and between the parties, the testimony of the complainant and his witnesses in open Court, and upon the entire record, from all of which the Court is of the opinion and finds that the allegations of the bill are sustained by the proof in that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward the complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper;

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be and the same are hereby permanently dissolved, and for nothing held, and the complainant is restored to all the rights of an unmarried person; and,

It further appears that the custody of the minor children of the parties should be committed to the complainant;

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the custody of the minor children of the parties be awarded your complainant with visitation rights as set out in the property settlement agreement.

It further appears to the Court that the parties have entered into a property settlement agreement, subject to the approval of the Court, which they desire to be incorporated in this decree;
